Khan Academy - this is a great place for:

- Math (all ages up to AP classes)
- Science (including AP classes)
- Arts and humanities (especially the AP classes)
- SAT prep (both general and personalized)
- Daily schedules by age group (PK - HS) from Khan Academy - great if you are looking for structure.

Online Number puzzles

These will help with critical thinking and number sense. Read the directions. You may mess up - but if you think about your mistakes and actively think about strategies, they will make you a better problem solver.
