

RAINIER SCHOLARS

College Care Packages

Currently 180 Rainier Scholars attend 60 colleges and universities around the country. Volunteering to purchase and assemble college student care packages is a helpful way to support a scholar on the pathway to college graduation. Each year, Rainier Scholars sends care packages to our college students whether they are attending a local school or living across the country or with this year's case, at home.

How it Works:

- ✓ Contact Alli Wan, Office Manager/Program Assistant. The deadline to sign up is Friday, October 9, 2020.
- ✓ Let us know if you'd like to be matched with one or more scholars. We will provide a short bio and photo of your scholar(s).
- ✓ Pick up a medium-sized USPS flat rate box (11 1/4" x 8 3/4" x 6") from your local post office.
- ✓ Fill your care packages with items a college student would appreciate.
- ✓ Make sure to include a handwritten note in each package.
- ✓ Return your care packages UNSEALED to the Rainier Scholars office by week of November 2, 2020 (drop off hours/details to follow).

Thank you for supporting our hard-working scholars!

“I can't thank you enough for taking time out of your busy schedule to brighten up our days. College is hard but doable since I know there are people in this world looking out for me. Thank you for supporting Rainier Scholars and me! I hope I too can give back in some way, some day.”

“Thank you so much for putting my care package together! Everything in it was really useful and a real nice treat to get me through the final stretch of the quarter. The socks and snacks were my favorite!”
