Seeking professionals from all fields/sectors to support scholars' career exposure and leadership development by:

- Facilitating workshops that expose scholars to a range of professions and the interpersonal, technical, and leadership skills they utilize.
- Conducting mock interviews, resume reviews, and providing support with application essay writing and LinkedIn profile building.

*Please note—this will be an in-person event!

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Workshop Facilitators

Saturday, December 17th

Workshops are 90 minutes

Morning block

10:00am-11:30am

Afternoon block

12:00pm-1:30pm

A successful workshop has scholars engaged in activity and/or discussion for the majority of the 90 minutes and should facilitate career exploration, self-reflection, and/or the development of professional skills (e.g. collaboration, communication, critical thinking, problem solving, self-advocacy). RS staff are available to support the workshop planning process.

Interviewer/Materials Review

Sunday & Monday, December 18th-19th

2:00pm - 4:00pm, both days

Sunday

High School only

College only

Volunteers will conduct mock interviews and/or provide guidance on resumes, LinkedIn, application essays, and/or cover letters. On-site training and guidance will be provided by RS.
